Community Corner

The Giving Place

The Giving Place provides food and clothing to the entire Unit Seven School District. The clothing room served over 900 people in October. The Giving Place is in great need of the following gently used items: girls clothes sizes 4t to 14/16, gloves, mittens and winter coats. Also, brand new in package underwear and socks for girls and boys. Your donation makes a difference and it stays right here in our community. If you would like to contribute, please place your items in the designated boxes found in the vestibules. Thank you and may God's blessings be upon you!

Please let the office know if there is something happening in our community that others may be interested in.
